Dr. Sharon Ondreyco joined City of Hope Phoenix in March 2023. As a Medical Oncologist, she works with a multidisciplinary team to evaluate and treat patients with various types and stages of cancer. She is especially focused on hematology and the treatment of breast cancers.

Dr. Ondreyco earned a medical degree from Ohio State College of Medicine in Columbus, Ohio, before completing an internship and residency in internal medicine at the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas. She went on to complete a hematology and medical oncology fellowship at University of Utah Health in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Board certified in internal medicine and medical oncology by the American Board of Internal Medicine, Dr. Ondreyco has published extensively on a wide range of topics over her 40-plus years in oncology, including the staging of abdominal lymphoma, preleukemia and the use of an anticoagulant during pregnancy. She has been recognized as a top doctor and oncologist in Arizona numerous times in her career and also held many leadership positions with organizations including the Arizona Oncology State Board, the Arizona Oncology State Quality Committee and the Arizona Oncology Phoenix Governing Board.
